Re: United States v. Desmond Brannon, 18 Cr. 358 (WHP)

Dear Judge Pauley:

The Government respectfully submits this letter in advance of the defendant's sentencing presently scheduled for November 19, 2020, at 2:00 p.m.

In light of the defendant's apparent progress in maintaining his sobriety and obtaining employment, the Government agrees with the defendant and the Probation Office that the Court should reimpose a term of supervised release with the special condition of three months' home detention enforced by GPS monitoring. (Dkt. No. 62.) However, in light of the lengthy period of time during which the defendant failed comply with the terms of his supervised release, the Government requests that the reimposed period of supervised release be substantial in order to assure that the defendant makes a sustained and successful transition to a law-abiding lifestyle.

Respectfully submitted,

AUDREY STRAUSS
Acting United States Attorney
